Important notice regarding exam

Exam Notice 2022-23
For B. A. / B. Com. Part- II

All the teachers teaching these classes are hereby informed that the traditional degree level (BA/ B Com- Part- II) examinations of Shivaji University March/ April 2023 summer session were conducted at the college level, but the students who appeared for the said examination on the date mentioned in the hall ticket should be notified about the provision of re-exam.

According to the circular, the university has informed that re- examination should be conducted at the college level so that all the students who could not appear due to time constraints do not suffer any educational loss. Accordingly, it is planned to conduct these exams at the college level next week. However, it is requested that all the affected students as above, should be intimated about the re-exam immediately. The students should contact the examination department within two days till 10th and 11th July 2023 so that further planning becomes convenient.

(Note- Students who have failed in the above examination or who have not filled the form are not eligible to appear for re-exam.)
