Short description of activity/programme:

Revolutionary thinker Mahatma Jotiba Phule's death anniversary was organized on November 28, 2022 in Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Karad by the Department of National Service Scheme. Prof. Dr. Ila Jogi was the Chief Guest for this programme. In her speech Prof. Dr. Ila Jogi remembered Mahatma Jotiba Phule as an intellectual social reformer and writer. Mahatma Jotiba Phule was a great social reformer who contributed to social welfare like untouchability eradication, abolition of caste system, education to women and backward classes. He founded the 'Satyashodhak Samaj' in 1873 to provide justice to Dalits and weaker sections of society. Shri. Akhilesh Shinde Programme Officer of National Service Scheme expressed his thoughts about Mahatma Jotiba Phule in this programme. All the NSS volunteers, faculty and administrative staff participated in this programme.
